The Dhillon School of Business has been offering quality business education for nearly 50 years. We believe in experiential and work-integrated learning, which means our students become involved in solving real business problems as they learn. No matter what the specialization, our students get hands-on experience with opportunities for paid work placements, consulting projects, real-time/real-money financial trading, hands-on research, and simulations. Our motto is: "Mokakit," which means 'practice wisdom, apply your knowledge,' where 'Experience' is the Dhillon difference.
