CALGARY: NORTH AMERICA'S FASTEST-GROWING TECH HUB

Calgary is rapidly diversifying its economy from a traditional focus on petroleum and energy towards a focus on technology. For the second year in a row, Calgary is ranked the #1 fastest-growing tech hub in North America (CBRE Tech Talent Report, 2025).

Calgary has the highest concentration of corporate head offices in Canada (FP 500 Database, 2025), with more than 475 tech companies headquartered locally.

Local companies such as Neo Financial and Benevity started up and continue to operate in Calgary, while global tech leaders like Infosys, IBM, Mphasis, and Appexus operate out of Calgary.

Calgary's tech sector makes up approximately 8% of the city's economy, above the North American average of 5.3% (CBRE Tech Talent Report, 2025).

HIGHLIGHTS

FLEXIBILITY

Multiple intakes available in September, January and May. No application deadlines.

SCHOLARSHIP OFFER

UICC offers an entrance scholarship worth C$2000 to new applicants. Students who pay their minimum deposit by the scholarship payment deadline for their intake will automatically be considered.

CALGARY CAMPUS ADVANTAGE

Study in the heart of Calgary's professional centre, just steps away from public transit. Calgary has the lowest cost of living of all top Canadian cities, making it a prime choice for students.

GUARANTEED ADMISSION

Successfully completing UICC's program ensures you guaranteed admission to your desired major at the Dhillon School of Business.

HIGH EMPLOYABILITY RATE

Join an extensive alumni network spanning 51 countries and benefit from the school's remarkable 94.8% employability rate.

WORK INTEGRATED LEARNING

Students get hands-on experience with opportunities for paid work placements (Co-op) and consulting projects. Co-op terms allow students to apply theories they've learned in the classroom while earning money and gaining confidence.
